

Blood And Gold / Mohacs (Andy Irvine / Jane Cassidy)

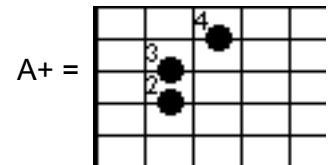

Dm C Dm C
On rides a captain and three hundred soldier lads

1. Strophe
zusammen

Dm C Dm
Out of the morning mist and through the silent snow

C Dm C
Whistling early rides the captain of their head

Dm C A+ - A
Behind him soldier boys sadly weeping go

Oh, when you took my gold and swore to follow me
You sold the way you live and your liberty
No more you turn the soil no more you work the land
No more to the dance you go and take us by the hand (A+)

Oh, mother, weep (A / F / C / Dm)
for your son (Dm / C)
He has gone to kill and die (C / F / C / A+ - A)

You weep, you'll die by the king and of the sword
All alone by the muddy Danube shore
He gave the order for the drummers to beat their drums
That mothers all might know the life the soldier lives (A)

Unfurl your ragged banners and raise your baleyon face
You'll all go in the fight there'll be no hiding place
Oh, mother, hear the drum beat in the village square
Oh, mother, that drum's for me to go for a soldier's death (A+)

Mother, sisters, wives (A / F / C / Dm)
weep for us (leise, Dm / C)
Matters king we die alone? (C / F / C / A+ - A ... Dm / C)
