

Mary Black: Song For Ireland
 Songwriter: Phil Colclough

Variante in C
 (Notenlinie = G, Original CD = D = 2 Capo)

Intro: C Dm C Dm C Dm C Dm

C G Dm C F G7 C

1. Walk-ing all the day, near tall tow-ers where fal - cons build their nests
2. Talk - ing all the day, with true friends who try to make you stay
3. Drink-ing all the day, in old pu - bs where fidd - lers love to play
4. Dreaming in the night, I saw a la - nd where no man had to fight

C G Dm C F G7 C

Sil-ver-winged they fly, they know the call of free - dom in their breasts
 Tel-ling jokes and news, sing-ing songs to pass the night a - way
 Someone touched the bow, he played a reel it seemed so fine and gay
 Wa-king in your dawn, I saw you cry - ing in the mor - ning light

F G C Am F G7

Saw Black Head a - gainst the sky, where twist - ed rocks run down to the sea
 Watched the Galway sal - mon run, like sil - ver dan - cing darting in the sun
 Stood on Ding - le beach and cast, in wild foam we found At - lan - tic bass
 Ly - ing where the fal - cons fly, they twist and turn all in your blue sky

Refrain:

F G C Am (G-Bass) (Fis-Bass) G7

Li-ving on your west-ern shore, saw sum-mer sun-sets, asked for more. I

F G C G Dm Am F G7 C

stood by your At- lan - tic sea and sang a song for I - re- land

Ending (statt letztes C): Am Dm G C
